

Ridgefield Press

March 4, 2010

Dancing Curtain Teaches Acting

The Dancing Curtain LLC, a Ridgefield-based comedy business, will offer acting classes for all ages at the Ridgefield Recreation Center. A free sample class will be offered on Tuesday, March 16 from 4:30 to 6 with teacher Khristee Rich. No registration is required.

Classes begin Tuesday, March 23. Classes are Tuesdays or Thursdays for kindergarten through high school. An adult class is offered on Tuesdays from 12:30 to 1:30. Students may choose between Create Your Own Monologue for high school students, Act on Your Dreams for kindergarten through eighth grade, and Theatre Games for adults.

Classes for kids are six weeks; the acting class for adults is four weeks. Classes will not meet during school break from April 19 to 23.

Final performance for all acting classes, kindergarten through high school, is Friday, May 7, at 8 p.m. at the Ridgefield Recreation Center.

To register for classes, visit the Recreation Center. For prices and schedule call: 203-431-2755. For more info on classes, visit thedancingcurtain.com/classSchedule.html, or e-mail khristee@thedancingcurtain.com.